Traditions
We Uphold*

Pinkerton is not merely a group of buildings, a faculty, and a student body; it is an institution permeated with traditions. We, the Class of 1967, have been proud of our part in helping to keep alive the traditions that have made our years at the Academy more meaningful.

Years from now when we browse through the CRITIC, we'll hear the distant sound of the tower bell and visualize once again the Senior steps.

May future classes perpetuate and take pride in the Pinkerton traditions we have learned to treasure.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of '67 proudly dedicate our yearbook, a Pinkerton tradition in itself, to Joanne H. Cournoyer, our class adviser. You, Miss Cournoyer, gave unselfishly of your time and talents to guide our class. It was with your help that we first discovered the Pinkerton traditions. We want you to accept this dedication as a small token of our appreciation for all you have done.

CURRICULUM

Traditionally a center of learning, Pinkerton Academy strives to prepare its students for the future. Modern teaching aids are employed to provide an excellent education. However, it is the understanding faculty who help the students not only to absorb the material but also to apply it with wisdom.

For patiently guiding us and channeling our newly-acquired knowledge into worthwhile areas, we wish to thank the faculty.

And In The Future, It Will Be

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

"Give a yell,
Give a cheer,
'67 is our year
Spectacular class of white and gold
P.A. traditions we uphold
Onward, upward, all the way,
Ever true to old P.A."

These lines from our class cheer represent our philosophy from our freshman year through graduation. We are proud of our rich Pinkerton heritage and have tried to show our respect and admiration for the Academy through school spirit.

Speaking of our freshman year brings to mind many delightful memories. Among the first of our activities at Pinkerton was the composition of a class cheer. Much credit is due Heidi Woodward who was creative in this endeavor. Our class banner, displaying our colors, gold and white, was made by Diane Buckley, Priscilla Houle, and Mary Lou Cadieux.

As freshmen, we were fortunate to receive various honors. Paul Hoover became our first Letterman, Polly Wells was chosen for Varsity cheering, and Jo Anne Latulippe, Chris Strzesak, and Michelle Lizotte were selected for J. V. cheering squad.

We elected Robert Knowles, president, and the following supporting officers: Vice President, Christine Strzesak; Secretary, Michelle Lizotte; Treasurer, Robert McIntire; and Student Council members: Paul Hoover, Heidi Woodward.

We were the last class to "enjoy" being initiated by the sophomores. The girls wore long skirts, mismatched shirts and vegetable corsages. The boys were dressed in burlap sacks, nylons, garters and were decorated with lipstick and rouge.

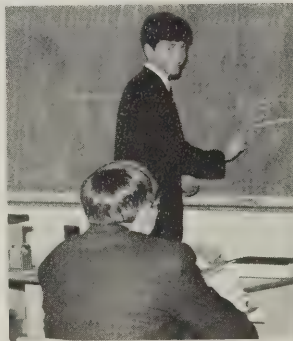

We participated in many other activities and sports but mostly, as freshmen, we became accustomed to our acceptance as members of the Pinkerton Academy family.

Our first duty of our sophomore year at Pinkerton was the election of class officers. The four students who entered new offices were Paul Hoover, President; Annette Cadieux, Vice President; Jo Anne Latulippe and Bob Knowles, Student Council members.

As spirited sophomores, we really became a part of the school activities which were so much a part of P.A. traditions. Gregg True became our second Letterman; Pauline Wells, a Varsity cheerleader; and Christine Strzesak, a J.V. cheerleader.

Representing our class at graduation were Arthur Hicks, Tracy Omar, and Frank Smith, who received Latin awards.

At last, as juniors, we became upperclassmen. Our school spirit began to grow this year and became evident in every project our class undertook. Paul Hoover, Annette Cadieux, Keith Covill, and Michelle Lizotte were elected our leaders, with Mark Aldrich and Chris Strzesak, Student Council members. That was the year P.A. celebrated its 150th anniversary and the class of '67 did its share in helping with the festivities. As a whole, we began to participate in more school activities. Some of us were elected to National Honor Society, some led the school in its cheers, some earned the coveted letter and became Lettermen and Letterwomen. And when it came time to order and receive our class rings, we realized just how much pride can be attached to a small metal ornament.

Pleasant To Remember These Things—

We all pitched in and worked, and the result was a night none of us will ever forget—our Junior Prom. We floated through Neptune's Kingdom on bubbles of music and asked a passing sea horse just "How Deep is the Ocean?"

Who will ever forget the Junior Play? Ours was a comedy called "Life of the Party." All of us had a grand time rehearsing and selling tickets as well as selling ourselves as a class. The results were good and we reached our goal of 2000 tickets.

The year ended well. Mark Aldrich and Bob Knowles went to Boys' State while Debbie Taber attended Girls' State. Carolyn Hackler, Sandy Smith, Eddie Duston, and Greg True continued summer studies at St. Paul's School and brought home honors.

School Spirit, which has always been a part of our philosophy at P.A., reached its peak in our senior year.

Chuck Myette was chosen to lead our class, and Norman Lee became a member of the Student Council, as the rest of the officers remained the same.

A group of senior girls started a full-fledged spirit drive which spread throughout the school during the football season. As a result, the team came in third in Division III. A perfect ending to a great season was the selection of Chuck Myette, Greg True, and Eric Brander for the All-State Class I Football Team.

Chris Strzesak was elected Head Cheerleader, while Denise Olivier, Lynn Panzarella, and Jo Anne Latulippe helped to cheer our boys to victory.

Our senior activities began with the traditional Senior Corn Roast at Chase's Grove; we actually had corn this year. The senior girls' hockey team took the trophy and were undefeated until they played the men faculty, which was a first for our class.

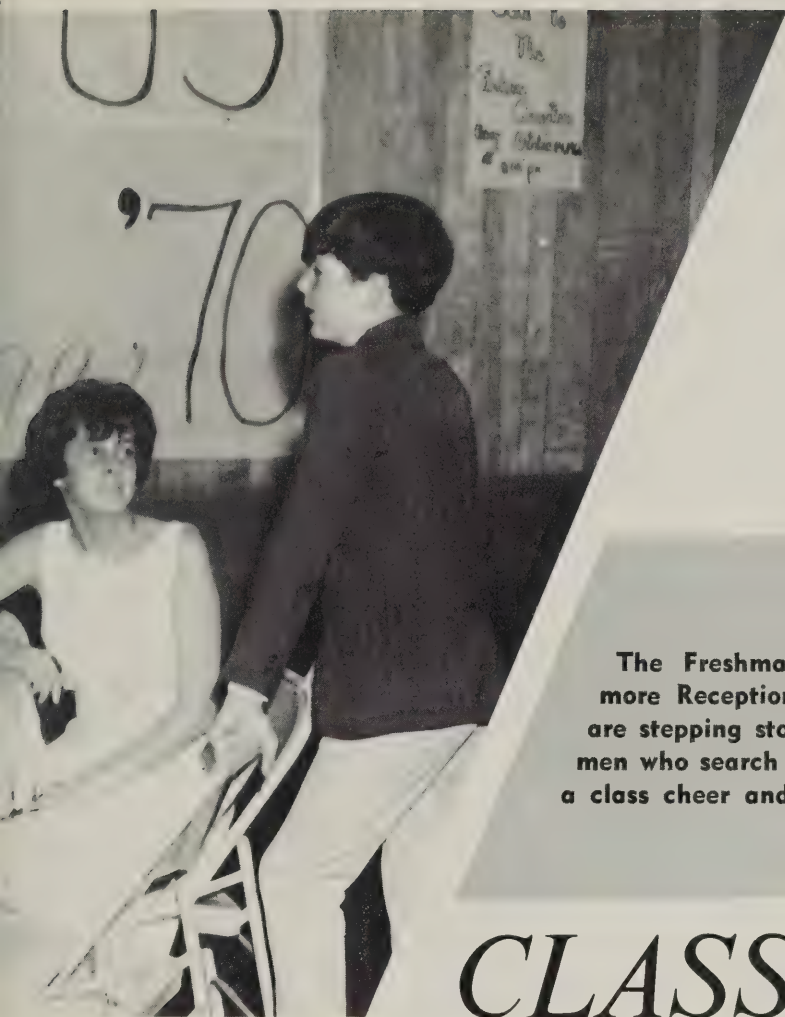

Our Senior play, "A Pennant for the Kremlin," was a change from the usual family comedy and was a great success. We hit a new high by selling 2022 tickets. After four weeks of hard work, the cast and their guests deserved the delicious buffet supper that followed the second performance.

The taking of senior pictures, organizing the yearbook, practicing for Baccalaureate, Class Day, and Graduation made us realize that our four years at Pinkerton would soon be ending. The Senior Banquet was a night of dining and dancing which we all enjoyed. We celebrated our last activity as a class with the traditional Senior Howl.

As the spectacular class of '67 marched down the senior steps on graduation day, we knew we would always remember the part we had played in Pinkerton's history and traditions.

The Freshman Initiation, the Sophomore Reception, and the Junior Prom are stepping stones for the underclassmen who search for the pride found in a class cheer and a banner.

The Business Staff also set high goals which required many hours of work. Each member of the staff had the satisfaction of knowing that he contributed to the financial success of the yearbook.

Service—The Keynote of Lettermen,

The Lettermen's Association, aspired to by every boy who enters the Academy, is an integral part of Pinkerton life. It is composed of boys who have received a letter in a major sport. These boys, true to tradition and led by Athletic Director Weston Root, set an example of behavior for each boy at the Academy.

LETTERWOMEN

One of the oldest traditions at Pinkerton is the Letterwomen's Association. Members have earned their letters by participating in the numerous extra-curricular activities of the school. As a service group, the girls encourage school spirit by selling beanies, buttons, and shakers. Also, at every football and basketball game, they are selling tickets. For a special project, the girls donated the money to complete the lighting of the Pinkerton tower.

THE BAND

The one hundred five piece Pinkerton Academy band, directed by Mr. Robert Hutchins, continues to present Christmas and Spring Concerts to capacity audiences.

The marching band participates in both the Veterans Day and the Memorial Day Parades and presents an exciting half time show at our home football games. For the first time, the football band traveled to Somersworth for an away game.

In its second year, the Pep Band continues to play exciting songs at our home basketball games. They are a self-directed group of sixteen members.

At the Spring Concert Mr. Hutchins presented a dance band which consisted of twenty more-advanced musicians of the P. A. band. They played jazz arrangements and performed remarkably well.

Songs from Broadway Musicals, Modern Jazz, and earlier works were sung at the Spring Concert.

The Chapel Choir, a select group of twenty voices from the Glee Club, performs at the Spring Concert. Their arrangements are of a more difficult nature than that of the Glee Club and gives the experienced singer a chance to excel.

MAJORETTES AND COLORGUARDS

The enjoyable routines of the P. A. Majorettes are colorful and stylish in parades and at football games.

Their precision, diligence, and vitality account for their peerless performances while instilling enthusiasm and excitement at Pep Rallies and cheering our football and basketball teams to victory. Their hours of practice are rewarded by the great school spirit which they arouse in every student's heart.

Yes, we are proud of our cheerleaders who have made P. A. one of the most outstanding schools in the state.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Traditionally, the Senior Play is delightfully entertaining. Our Senior Play, "A Pennant for the Kremlin" was no exception. Directed by Miss Ann Garland, the play was hailed as one of the funniest since "The Mouse That Roared". The unusual set was designed by Miss Mary Gaffney and painted by her Art classes. The play afforded a unique change from the usual family comedy. During the scene changes, the Stage Managers appeared on stage making alterations to the tune of "Take Me Out to the Ball Game". The play involved a baseball team which was bequeathed to the Russians. Needless to say, many complications arose. It was evident, however, that the cast enjoyed presenting the play as much as the audience enjoyed viewing it.

"I wrapa da fish dissa nize paper."

"I'm on stage . . . yelling 'Don't shoot!'"

"Take me out to the ballgame."

JUNIOR PROM

February 5, 1966, the night of our Junior Prom, finally came after many hours of enthusiastic planning and decorating. The Shepard auditorium, decorated according to our theme, "How Deep is the Ocean", beckoned us to enter an underwater wonderland. On the stage, a giant shell sheltered the orchestra and was surrounded by beautiful pastel stalactites and stalagmites. Pretty mermaids watched from their underwater palaces of flowers. All too soon the Prom was over, but the memories will linger in our minds as one of the most wonderful events of our years at P. A.

Life of the Party

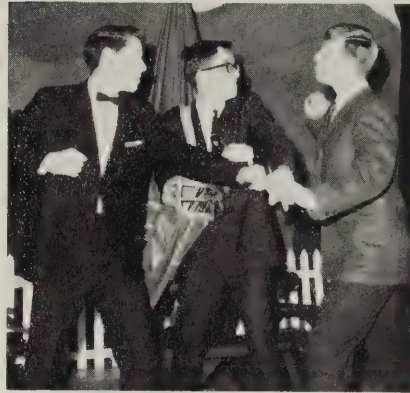

On April 19, 1966, as the curtain went up, the Class of '67 made its debut on the stage. The target of our efforts was a comedy called "Life of the Party." It concerned itself with the adventures of a bookwormish new girl who is taken in by the charms of a local high school con-artist. She becomes the life-of-the-party and disaster results. However, all ends happily in our play, as it did for us.

The Class of '67 wishes to express thanks to Miss Garland for her expert direction, to Miss Brown and the Art department for the beautiful scenery, and to Miss Cournoyer who led our successful ticket drive.

After the curtain went down on the second performance, the cast and guests went to the cafeteria for the play party and danced to the music of the Telstars.

Okay, lady Let's have the WHOLE story.

I want you to shake hands with . . .

WHO'S coming?

Will Frank's REAL date please step forward?

It's okay; I'm allergic to flowers, anyway.

OFFICE STAFF

The members of the Office Staff are indispensable to Mr. Knowles and Mrs. Wheeler. Each one devotes a study period a day delivering mail, running errands, and assisting in general office duties. These young people consider it an honor to be able to help their school and should be commended for their efforts.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Several members of the F. F. A. have brought honors to the Academy by winning the State Horticultural Judging Contest and the State Livestock Showmanship Contest at U. N. H. Lawrence Wise, Poultry Boy of the Year, won a trip to Harrisburg, Penna. The boys have also remodeled the potting plant room and built benches for the greenhouse. Several trips are planned to close out a busy year.

Library, Language Clubs Teach

LIBRARY STAFF

The library assistants perform various tasks assisting the librarian, Miss Abbott. This group of juniors and seniors take care of library permits, check out books, and, in general, help to keep the library in order. This year they have joined the Granite State Student Library Assistants Association. Twice yearly this group meets at a school where they compare library techniques. All of this helps to make a better informed library assistant.

SPANISH CLUB

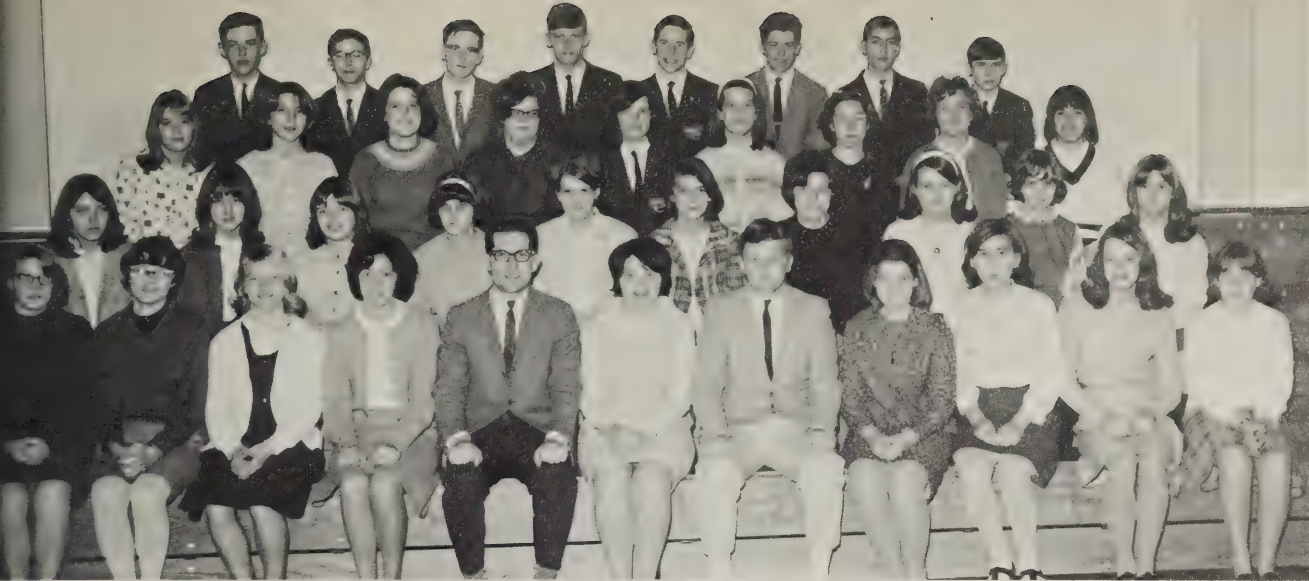

The Spanish Club, under the direction of Miss Wright, offers the students an opportunity to learn more of the culture and customs of the Spanish speaking nations. At Christmas the group sang Spanish carols to the members of the faculty who reside in the Village. Slides of Spain and Latin America have made the year's study more realistic and interesting.

The Value of Group Participation

LATIN CLUB

Members of the Latin Club accept past culture as a major part of their own. Their various activities include speakers with talks on Rome, its senate, and its classes of people, and panel discussions on articles about Caesar as they have appeared in Life magazine. Still dedicated to enriching their knowledge of past culture, this year they have opened their eyes to the present by holding a slave auction to raise money for Dollars for Scholars.

THE FRENCH CLUB

The traditional purpose behind the French Club is for the students to become better acquainted with the French culture and people. The French Club has been in existence for many years. It has been during the past four years that the French Club has had its most substantial increase in membership and interest. One of the French teachers at Pinkerton acts as advisor to the group.

COACH N. PAQUETTE

Sports participation, a long standing tradition at P. A., encompasses the entire student body. From an enthusiastic Pep Rally to a quiet pat on "Jack", the girls' basketball Mascot, school spirit is present.

ATHLETICS

Attending Sports Banquet are Coach Johnson, C. Myette, E. Brander, G. True, and Mr. Dan Metcalf, former P.A. coach.

FOOTBALL

Under a hot mid-August sun, thirty-three boys showed up at the fieldhouse to play football. Filled with a hunger for contact and a desire to win, these boys sweated and bled on the Oval while others finished the last few weeks of summer vacation. Under the able direction of Head Coach Hugh Johnson, End Coach Nelson Paquette, and Backfield Coach Kenneth Sciacca, the team whipped into the close-knit and hard-hitting unit. The "Big Red", as they came to be known, surprised everyone but themselves with a tremendous comeback from the previous year. They had been rated by experts to finish last in the league, but they battled to third place in Class 1, with a 5-3 record. They were the sixth strongest defensive and highest scoring school in the state. Three senior boys were chosen for first string All-State: Captain Eric Brander, Tackle; Charles Myette, Guard; and Gregg True, Fullback.

The 1966-67 basketball season was one of the most exciting the Academy has ever seen. After getting off to a slow start, we played some good basketball but just couldn't squeak by. We lost some close ones: Exeter by 2, Franklin by 3. Yet, the last five games of the season saw Pinkerton playing very good basketball. However, we still could climb no higher than ninth place in class I with the top eight teams going to the tournament. The "Big Red" had many thrills and many disappointments throughout the basketball campaign but the love for the game was ever present.

We must go all class L next season. This means facing different teams and keener competition. The boys are looking forward to it and we feel we can hold our own with schools comparable to ours. We will have five lettermen back next season giving us a good nucleus from which to round out a class L team.

Winning the last four games of the season will surely be remembered by the members of our team.

A Successful Season

Seniors '66 Champs

The Champs

FIELD HOCKEY

Our freshman year was a season of learning and practice. Though we fought hard, we came in fourth place.

Full of hope, we entered our sophomore season of field hockey. This time we advanced one step up the ladder of victory to come in third place.

Our junior year was a real test of our ability. We were the victors of the first half, but the sophomores surprised us and took the trophy for the season, with the seniors in second place, leaving us in third again.

Our last year, we made an all-out effort to improve our team. With only eleven players, we had an undefeated season and won the long-awaited trophy.

We ended the season with the traditional game against the senior boys. When the laughter subsided, we girls were still undefeated with a score of 4-2. We made a new addition to our traditional game this year by challenging the men faculty to a game. We didn't realize the consequences for the faculty ended our undefeated status by winning 3-2.

TRACK

Under the supervision of Coach Barksdale, the members of the track team condition themselves for the strenuous events of the track meets. Beginning as early in the year as possible, the boys spend their time distance running. Later they work to develop skills in their own events.

BASEBALL

Baseball, lately Pinkerton's most successful sport, attracts boys from every class. Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Freshman baseball are all under the supervision of coach and athletic director Weston Root. Spring practice swings into action the minute the P. A. Oval is dry of its winter's snows. From that moment, until the end of the state competitions, there's no rest for our hard working squad.
